

Parkes Philanthropy Consultant Bio

Name: Sarah Haimes

Role: Consultant

Education: B.A. in Art History and Visual Arts

Sectors: nonprofit

Specialties: event planning and production, fundraising, arts & culture

Professional Experience: Sarah is an independent consultant focusing on event management, corporate sponsorship, individual giving, and grant-writing for a variety of clients in the arts. She previously served as Manager of Individual Giving at Performa where she oversaw all aspects of fundraising as the sole full-time employee in Development.

Affiliations: Sarah is the President of Aperture Foundation's Young Professionals Advisory Board, a Board Member of the Bowdoin College Delta Sigma Delta Upsilon Fund, and a Collector's Collaborative Member of the Bowdoin College Museum of Art.

Awards and Recognitions: Recipient of the Sarah and James Bowdoin Scholar Award (top 20% of class) Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years.

Personal Interests: Sarah enjoys visiting galleries and museums, learning about and collecting antique jewelry, and baking.

Passion for Social Impact: Sarah is most passionate about building community and the Social Impact field allows for meaningful relationship building and collaboration while working towards positive change for our local and global communities.