

Name: Sareen Handoush

Role: Consultant

Education: B.A. in Public Health and Business Administration from the University of South Carolina

Sectors: nonprofit, corporate social responsibility, healthcare, international and community development

Professional Experience: Sareen most recently worked at the hospitality company Selina establishing their social impact initiatives in the US and creating their pilot sustainability program. She has additional experience in event planning, culture-building, and corporate volunteerism.

Affiliations: Delta Sigma Pi, Be Social Change

Awards and Recognitions: Flinn Scholar, Capstone Scholar, Certified Health Educator, Human Subject Research (HSR) Certified

Personal Interests: cooking, reading, sustainable fashion, sewing & stitching, martial arts, volunteering, traveling

Passion for Social Impact: Sareen is passionate about increasing accessibility to high quality education and healthcare. She is also dedicated to alleviating global poverty and hunger. In 2017, she traveled to Guatemala to research these issues and aid in the success of local nonprofits. She is also involved in promoting sustainability, civil rights, and women's right.