

Name: Tyler Dunn

Role: Consultant

Education: Master of Health Administration from Johns Hopkins and B.A. in English Language and Literature from the University of Connecticut

Sectors: nonprofit development, health care, environmental sustainability

Professional Experience: Tyler presently works in hospital operations for Johns Hopkins Medicine. He has previously worked as a fundraiser, financial analyst, and project administrator for various organizations, including community health centers, health systems, and small community based organizations.

Affiliations: Upsilon Phi Delta Honor Society, ACHE

Awards and Recognitions: Yellow Belt, Lean Six Sigma

Personal Interests: music, basketball, hiking, camping, reading, traveling

Passion for Social Impact: Tyler is most passionate about public health, economic justice, and environmental health and sustainability.