

Parkes Philanthropy Consultant Bio

Name: Ryan Brown

Role: Consultant

Education: Bachelors of Science in Organizational Leadership from Valdosta State University

Sectors: nonprofit, philanthropic advising

Specialties: education, community development, government affairs

Professional Experience: Ryan most recently worked for the Joe Biden campaign in Community Engagement. Prior, Ryan worked for the Association for Institutional Research and in higher education, where he focused on funding for scholarships, endowments, and naming opportunities.

Affiliations: Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc.

Personal Interests: swimming, golf, running, history documentaries

Passion for Social Impact: Ryan is a firm believer that communities can be transformed with strategic planning, investments, community engagement and public/private partnerships.

