

Parkes Philanthropy Consultant Bio

Name

Dwayne
Griffith

Sectors

CSR, social entrepreneurship

Role

Consultant

Specialties

Community development, international development

Education

B.S. in Social Entrepreneurship from Watson Institute at Lynn, Certificate in Human Rights and Intl. Development from University for Peace

Professional Experience

Dwayne serves as the Chief Impact Officer of The PWR Agency on Sint Maarten, where he defines and executes the company's impact strategy. Dwayne is also the Program Coordinator at Halcyon Incubator, supporting entrepreneurs from all over the globe by creating a resource library to grow their businesses. Previously, he worked with the Government of Sint Maarten as the Youth Representative on their National Development Plan Steering Committee.

Achievements

Under Dwayne's leadership, Sint Maarten's Islandpreneur live conference attracted over 600+ people from 35+ countries. At the PWR Agency, he has supported local entrepreneurs by providing them with over $30,000 in funding.

Affiliations

Dwayne has been named a StartingBloc Social Innovation Fellow.

Awards and Recognitions

Dwayne has been named a Watson Institute Scholar.

Passion for Social Impact

Growing up on an island in the Caribbean, Dwayne has always been passionate about the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Personal Interests

International travel, language learning, reading