

Parkes Philanthropy Consultant Bio

Name

Sarah
Haimes

Sectors

Nonprofit

Role

Consultant

Specialties

Event planning and production,
fundraising, arts and culture

Education

B.A. in Art History and Visual Arts from Bowdoin College

Professional Experience

Sarah is an independent consultant focusing on event management, corporate sponsorship, individual giving, and grant-writing for a variety of clients in the arts. She previously served as Manager of Individual Giving at Performa where she oversaw all aspects of fundraising as the sole full-time employee in Development.

Achievements

Sarah has conducted contract work on fundraising strategy, project and budget management, fine art advising, and event production for clients including ART FOR CHANGE, GRIMM Gallery, OUT OF SIGHT, Conjunction Arts, and Fremont Blue Events, among others.

Affiliations

Sarah is the President of Aperture Foundation's Young Professionals Advisory Board, a Board Member of the Bowdoin College Delta Sigma Delta Upsilon Fund, and a Collector's Collaborative Member of the Bowdoin College Museum of Art.

Awards and Recognitions

Sarah received the Sarah and James Bowdoin Scholar Award (top 20% of class) Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years.

Passion for Social Impact

Sarah is most passionate about building and collaboration while working towards positive change for our local and global communities.

Personal Interests

Visiting galleries and museums, collecting antique jewelry, and baking