

Parkes Philanthropy Consultant Bio

Name

Chelsea
Parkes

Sectors

Nonprofit, business

Role

Consultant

Specialties

Talent sourcing, recruiting, program management

Education

B.B.A. with a specialization in Marketing from Bryant University

Professional Experience

Chelsea works in recruitment for the Trevor Project, where she is responsible for building an innovative and supportive, high-performing culture by managing full-cycle sourcing, hiring, and on-boarding a diverse set of the world's top talent.

Previously, she was a Technical Recruiter for TEKsystems, a technology staffing firm that focuses on change and innovation. Chelsea began her career interning as a Program Management intern with The Women's Sports Foundation and as a Digital Marketing intern with The Hartford.

Achievements

Chelsea has developed comprehensive recruiting strategies to identify qualified candidates by using various networking tools and negotiated wages, benefits and other terms and conditions of employment with prospective candidates.

Affiliations

Chelsea is a Digital Volunteer at the Trevor Project, where she speaks with youths in crisis.

Awards and Recognitions

Chelsea is a recipient of the Summer Internship Fellowship from Bryant University.

Passion for Social Impact

Chelsea is dedicated to diversity and inclusion and actively empowering individuals to find their voice.

Personal Interests

Traveling, exploring, trying new foods